Forty Dollars Reward.

A MAN calling himself Wm Williamson, borrowed from the subscriber on Thursday evening last, a Horse, Saddle, Bridle, and Great Coat, and took privately, and without permission a pair of Saddle Bags. Strong reasons exist to believe that he is a scoundrel, and does not intend to return, as he was seen within 5 miles of Pittsburgh. Said Williamson is about 6 feet high, stout made, much of a gentleman in his manners and well informed; had on a blue surtout and a pair of check over pantaloons; the coat he borrowed is brown has a large cape, and a small hole on the right side of the cape. The Horse is black has a star in his forehead, and one hind foot white, trots and paces. The above Reward will be given for securing him, so that the subscriber can receive his property WM. THE NAVY.

It appears by an official statement of the contracts made by the United States Navy Department in 1816, that besides the contracts for ship timber, &c. for 74's and frigates, the Department has contracted for "one full and complete frame of live oak for a 74 gun ship," to be delivered "on or before the 18th July 1818, at such navy yard as the commissioners of the navy board may designate," and "ditto for a ship of the line, within six months, and two ditto for frigates, within 12."

TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Charleston, (S. C.) January 29.

The trial of John Gibson, a colored man, late cook on board the schooner Maria, charged with having mixed poison in a dish served up to the passengers and crew of that vessel, on her passage from New-York to this port, (in consequence of which one of the passengers died, and the remainder, with part of the crew, suffered severely,) came on before the United States Circuit Court, now sitting in this city, on Thursday last. After a patient investigation of the circumstances, the jury retired, and shortly after returned, with a verdict of Guilty. The evidence on which he was convicted, was altogether circumstantial.

Freebooters—The Spanish schooner Neustra, Senora de Bragonia, capt. Esteva on her passage form Cuba to Charleston, was fallen in with by a piratical schooner and robbed of every thing they could lay their hands on. The following is captain Esteva's account of the treatment he received:—"Jan. 21st, in lat. 28, 20, long. 79, 40, fell in with and was boarded by a large Baltimore built two topsail schooner, of about 240 tons, under Carthagenian colours, manned entirely with Americans, who robbed us of all our money, clothes, sails, spare rigging, one cable, eleven barrels honey, nineteen boxes segars, some hides and all our charts, quadrant, &c. Her name reported the Potosi, commanded by J. Chase, who said he left Baltimore, 13 days before, and had a permit from the American government to board all Spanish vessels he met with. They threatened to burn the vessel, but on being informed she belonged to the captain, gave him a permit to proceed."

SPECIE PAYMENTS.

The decision of the Convention of State Banks, assembled in Philadelphia, to resume specie payments on the TWENTIETH day of this month, was made in compliance with certain propositions offered to the Convention by a committee on behalf of the Bank of the United States. These propositions are calculated to promote a spirit of harmony and union between the State Banks and the bank of the United States and its Branches, and to be mutually beneficial. Their effect will be to remove all obstructions to the resumption of specie payments, without producing injury to individuals, which might have resulted from an apprehension on the part of the directors of the State Banks of an extensive demand for specie, which might have been made on any one Bank suddenly, and which the directors must, in prudence, have prevented by lessening their discounts and thus drawing in their funds to the manifest prejudice of the mercantile part of the community.

The liberal arrangement thus made by the Banks to give facility to the resumption of specie payments, may be greatly aided by the conduct of individuals, as is very properly suggested in a Philadelphia paper. and we cannot doubt that every good citizen will readily give his aid to promote an object of so much importance to the community. [Balt. Fed. Gazette.

From the New-York Courier.

Marine News Extra.—ARRIVED, ship Compensation, Repeal, master, from Washington, with three thousand dollars specie, to Irving and Wendover. This valuable ship built about a twelve-month since is prohibited from ever making another voyage. Left, at Washington, the following vessels: ship Bankrupt, Law, master, at anchor in Goose Creek, where she has laid, and is likely to lay several years, and is now very leaky; those of her crew who have not deserted are sick at heart, in a very scurvy condition, and anxious for a discharge. Capt. Repeal, informs that the hulk of the old Judiciary, which was condemned some years since, as utterly unseaworthy having been recently examined by the port warden, and several distinguised ship builders, has been declared sound in all her timbers, and capable with a few repairs, and a complete set of new officers, of being rendered, very valuable. Also, the transport ship National Bank, Stephen Girard, master, a prodigious vessel, measuring not less than 35,000,000 tons. She had been recently hauled round to Washington from Philadelphia for examination, strong suspicions being entertained of an intention on the part of the master and crew, to load her in part with rags, when she had been wholly insured for specie. In fact rags had been stuffed into several casks, which ought to have been filled with dollars. She will be thoroughly overhauled, and further frauds, if possible prevented. Also ship colonization, of and from Virginia, Clay, master, waiting for passengers for Sierra Leone, and the coast of Africa—not expected to sail soon. The ship Madison, Monroe, master, was to be laid up in dry dock, along side the old long Tom, both having been long unfit for service. The master will be transferred to the president. It was currently reported that the fine ship Sailors Rights, of & from Kentucky, laden with thunder and lightning, from the manufactory of D. R. Williams & Co. had been stranded on Moose Island, and bilged—officers and cargo saved—& every mother's son of the whole crew, left to his fate.

A number of the papers, in different parts of the country, seeem to be disposed to satirize Dr. Mitchell, for a late communication of his respecting the bricks brought from the shores of the Euphrates, by capt. Austin of New-Haven, and which are supposed by the Dr. to have formed part of the materials of which the tower of Babel was built. This is rather unreasonable in the conductors of these papers, because if the learned professor is mistaken in his conjecture respecting these curiosities, he is not alone in the mistake. Some of the same species of bricks, dug from the same place, and with the same symbolical figures upon them, have been in England for a good many years. In the fourth volume of Calmet's Dictionary, may be found a learned dissertation on the subject: in which much plausible reasoning is made use of to establish the fact, that those bricks, as well as these, were from the tower of Babel, that the figures upon them go strongly to prove that there was a written language as early, at least, as that period, and if so, that in all probability it existed before the deluge.—It is not to be presumed that Dr. Mitchell ever saw this account. That he has fallen into the same speculation with the writer of that dissertation, only proves, by one more example, that "great men think alike."

One very interesting fact, however, is brought to our knowledge by capt. Austin, and that is, that a place exists in Persia, called the tomb of the prophet Daniel.—Whether it be actually his tomb; or not, is of little importance. That the tradition exists, and that the place is venerated by the Persians, is a striking fact in support of the Scripture history—as much so, perhaps, as if the place wss the actual tomb of the great Prophet.

Extract of a letter, dated Gibraltar Bay, Nov. 20, 1816.

"I cannot omit to notice an occurrence, which I am sure will have a tendency to increase the esteem which I am aware you already possess for Lieut. STRINGHAM.—It was in one of those tremendous squalls which eddy round the Rock of Gibraltar, (whose height is 1452 feet) form whirlpools on the water, and carries up the spray in eddying circles far above its summit, that a French vessel, endeavoring to make the anchorage at Algesiras, was overtaken and instantly upset. Her danger was extreme, and unless speedily relieved, the crew, who had got upon her bottom must perish, as she was fast foundering. Several English and Dutch men of war lay nearer to her by several miles than we did, and in snug mooring, while we were dragging our anchors, and deliberating on the necessity of getting under weigh. Perceiving that no assistance was likely to be rendered to the unfortunates by those around them, Lieut. Stringham volunteered to relieve them; and with an intrepidity and preservance that does him honor, succeeded in taking them from the wreck, long before the boats which followed his example from the English and Dutch, had pulled half the distance to her. His good fortune, however, failed him before he reached the beach at Algesiras, and his boat was capsized, and one of his crew and a Frenchman perished—a hard fate, when tempted from motives so humane. Lt Stringham, himself, barely escaped, having been driven to the shore in a state of insensibility, and picked up on the beach by the Spaniards. Yet the Gibraltar papers, the next day, claimed the merit of this transaction for the boats of the Minden, which were probably not within half a mile of the wreck at the critical moment."

REMEDY FOR DUELLING.

A Historical Fact.

In a war in the 17th century, between Gustavus, king of Sweden, and Sigismund king of Poland, the practice of Duelling rose to such a height both among officers and privates in the Swedish army, as induced Gustavus to publish a severe edict denouncing death against every offender, and by a strict execution of the edict the evil was effectually removed. When two of the Generals demanded permission to decide a quarrel by the sword, he gave a seeming consent and told them he would be an eye witness of their valor and prowess. He accordingly appeared, but accompanied by a public executioner, who had orders to cut off the head of the conqueror. The high spirited combatants, subdued by such firmness, fell on their knees at the king's feet; were ordered to embrace each other, and continued friends to the end of their lives. —Rus. His. Mod. Europe, 108.

To the Editors of the Federal Republican and Baltimore Telegraph.

Gentlemen,

Mr. Randolph's Tribute to the Virtues of Mr. Pickering has been very imperfectly reported. Such a tribute, considering who the parties are, will be a valuable fragment in the hands of the future historian, and ought therefore to be preserved with the most scrupulous adherence to the very letter. I therefore send it to you not only with a desire to correct the erroneous statement—but with a request that you will publish it thus corrected apart from the residue of that speech.

A member of Congress.

"No man in the U. States has been more misunderstood—No man more reviled—and that is a bold declaration for me to make, than Alexander Hamilton; unless, perhaps the venerable member from Massachusetts who generally sets in that seat, and whom, whatever may be said of him, all will allow to be an honest man.—The other day when on the compensation question he was speaking of his own situation, when his voice faultered and his eyes filled at the mention of his poverty, I thought I would have given the riches of Dives himself for his feelings at that moment: for his poverty was not the consequence of idleness, extravagance or luxury, nor of the gambling spirit of speculation—it was an honourable poverty after a life spent in a laborious service, and in the highest offices of trust under Government during the war of independence as well as under the present constitution. Sir, I have not much, altho' it would be gross affectation in me to plead poverty. What I have however, such as it is, I would freely give to the venerable gentleman if he will accept it, to have it said over my grave as it may with truth be over his. Here lies the man who was honoured with the confidence of Washington and the enmity of his successor."

The Female Tongue.—Lempriere, the physician, who had free admission to the imperial harem of the Emperor of Morocco, says the ladies had great reluctance in showing him the tongue, which they cosidered to be very indecent. One of the Sultan's wives crept behind a curtain, and had her pulse felt by putting her arm under the bottom; but it was with the greatest difficulty she could be prevailed on to show her tongue, which, however, she at length protruded through a hole made in the curtain! so different are the notions of delicacy in different nations!

FOR THE GAZETTE.

Mr. Scull,

In your last paper, a message of the Governor to our legislature is published, stating among other matters, that a gentleman now acting as alderman, and a judge of the mayor's court in Pittsburgh, was not at the organization of the city, and is not now, legally a justice of the peace, or alderman."

The message undoubtedly refers to the case of our mayor, E. Denny, Esq. who has been for many years a justice of the peace, and since the date of that commission, has occasionly contracted with the United States to supply their troops with provisions:—It is therefore inferred, that his commission of justice of the peace became void by the act of Assembly, passed 12th February, 1802, which provides:—

"That every person who shall hold any "office or appointment of profit or trust "under the government of the United "States, whether a commissioned officer or "otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, "who is or shall be employed under the "legislative, executive, or judiciary depart-"ments of the United States, and also eve-"ry member of congress, is hereby decla-"red to be incapable of holding or exerci-"sing, at the same time, the office or ap-"pointment of justice of the peace, may-"or, recorder, burgess or alderman of any "city, corporate town or borough, resi-"dent physician of the lazaretto, consta-"ble, judge, inspector or clerk of election, "under this commonwealth:—The holding "of any of the aforesaid offices or appoint-"ments under this state, is hereby decla-"red to be incompatible with any office or "appointment under the United States; "and every such commission, office or ap-"pointment so holden under the govern-"ment of this state, contrary to the true "intent and meaning of this act, shall be, "and the same is hereby declared to be "null and void."

Now it is manifest that a person who contracts with the United States to lend them money:—to make cannon and other munitions of war:—to furnish clothing:—to sell and deliver provisions for the troops at given places and at stated prices:—to open roads and build store houses &c. &c. is not an officer of trust or profit:—he receives no commission, no pay, no subsistence:—he is neither appointed nor removeable by the government.

He is not their agent, nor is he employed by them: for his acts do not bind them, nor are they answerable for his debts, nor can they controul his operations:—he acts for his own profit, on his own credit, and according to his own discretion. The workman he engages, are employed, dismissed and paid by himself. They have no claim upon the United States, and are not subject to the orders of any of their officers. If the contractor fail in performing his contract, he may be sued like any other delinquent, but he cannot be displaced or turned out.

Between these contractors and the United States, there is no other relation, than that arising between independent parties, as seller and purchaser—tradesman and customer—lender and borrower. A bank furnishing by contract, monthly supplies of money to pay the troops; or a farmer delivering forage or fuel at a garrison, would otherwise become officers or agents of the United States. These wild absurdities were never intended, and cannot be made to flow from the wholesome law above quoted unless all the old construction of language be destroyed.

There is indeed one species of contractor that ought if possible to be suppressed:—He who would for his own benefit or promotion, sell the votes of the commonwealth to those who manage the affairs of the United States!!! Such a contractor would deserve the severest animadversion of the law, and a breach of the bargain with him, would be regarded as but a part of the punishment proper to be inflicted for an offence, so dangerous in example, so revolting to the honour of the state.

His excellency the Governor having abruptly dismissed the venerable Mr. Ingerson, to make room for an attorney general whose residence at the seat of government, might afford constant and prompt law advice to all the great officers of state; it is presumable that the opinion of the governor has been formed on a consultation with that gentleman. It may therefore be confidently expected that the attorney general will attend our next supreme court in this city, to enlighten the western bar, and to demonstrate that all the proceedings under our late charter are null and void:—He will have ample time to prepare for this momentous argument, and we shall not fail to have a reporter ready to record every thing that may happen in a proceeding so novel and so interesting to this city.

A CITIZEN OF PITTSBURGH.

From the Meadville Messenger, Feb. 14

HORRID MURDER.

It has fallen to our lot to record an instance of atrocity, rarely to be met with in the annals of human depravity.

During the afternoon of Friday last, a stranger called at the house of Mr. Hugh Fitzpatrick, in Bloomfield township, Crawford county. He was kindly received by Mr. Fitzpatrick and wife. They invited him to stay over night, and a bed was made for him before the fire on which to repose. About 2 o'clock in the morning he arose, took an ax, went to the bed where Mr. F. was sleeping, and deliberately sunk it into his head! He drew the body out of the house, and then ordered Mrs. F. to deliver up what money she had, which she did, amounting to about $40. He told her she must proceed with him to Canada, and directed her to go to the stable and bring out two of the best horses. She went, but soon returned and told him she could not get them, and desired him to go for them himself. He left the house for that purpose. In the mean time Mrs. F. took up her child, about 3 weeks old, and hastily made her escape. After proceeding a short distance, fearful of pursuit, she left the road and took shelter under a fallen tree, with her infant in her arms and a small dog, that had followed her, by her side. She had scarcely secreted herself when she heard this inhuman monster in pursuit of her, calling her by name—occasionally whistling for the dog—and frequently uttering the most horrid imprecations, if he got her, to treat her as he had done her husband—He approached within a rod of her—but providentially both the child and the dog remained quiet. When she discovered that he had returned to the house, and finding that she must inevitably perish, with her child, in that situation, from the severity of the cold, she started, and after wandering thro' the woods and a deep snow, happily reached the house of her nearest neighbor, a distance of two miles, in a state of body and mind more easily conceived than described. The arms and legs of her infant were found to be severely frozen.

The alarm was soon given and pursuit made for the murderer. On Sunday a person, who calls himself George Spill Vanhollon, was found encamped in the woods, about four miles from where the murder was perpetrated, under circumstances manifesting the strongest evidence of guilt, and on Monday he was committed to the prison of this county.

Definition of Gratitude.—At the institution of the Deaf and Dumb, in the street of Observatory, No. 113, Paris, a question was put to a pupil of the Abbe Sicard, which would have puzzled any person to have immediately resolved, though possessed of the perfect use of both his ears and tongue, yet was instantly and elegantly answered in five words, by one who never enjoyed the use of either.—What is Gratitude? THE MEMORY OF THE HEART.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 6.

Principle reduced to Practice.

Several members of our state legislature, in their late session contended that the law encreasing their compensation was unconstitutional. Among whom were the members of Jefferson and Columbiana counties, and Charles Hammond of Belmont county. As evidence of their belief they all refused to receive more than two dollars per day, the old compensation.

FOR THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

HORACE IN PITTSBURGH.

Old is my lyre, and lost its tone,
Its strings are failing one by one,
For months it was not nigh me;
Yet while the instrument affords
The slightest music, its weak chords
Shall not be idle by me.

What times are these—my Barber stands
With anxious eye and trembling hands,
His fees expected loathing;
With horror in his eye and voice,
He takes, Oh! sad but equal choice,
Owl creek, Saline or——nothing

Strange, when all sorts of rags are found
To bring one price, Five cents the pound,
(They give that sum for any;)
That such a difference there should be
Between a rap and a baubee,
Beaver and Youhagany.

Enough—what I can not conceive,
Without a second thought, I leave
For clearer brains to settle;
For men who think it mere childs sport,
To judge on all things——men, in short
Of Doctor Mitchell's mettle.

Give me, ye Gods; some good segars,
And ale to dissipate my cares,
And friends by—to enjoy them;
Let business then go as it may,
My moments are not to throw away,
I know how to employ them.

From whiskey to Madeira wine,
There's nothing in the drinking line,
So much that I admire as
Pale Ale—the Port I like the most,
Its wines let Philadelphia boast,
Our's is the wine of Shiraz.

AN ORDINANCE,
Concerning the imposing and collection of City taxes

SECTION I. Be it ordained and enacted by the citizens of Pittsburgh, in select and common councils assembled, That, for the present year, as soon as may be convenient after the passing of this ordinance, and some time in the month of January in each and every year hereafter, the select and common councils of the said city of Pittsburgh shall resolve on the amount of taxes to be raised for the current year, and shall assess the same according to the last assessment of the county of Allegheny: and shall also, at the same time, make specific appropriations defining the object and amount of each expenditure to be made for that year.

SECTION II. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for the purpose of the assessment and collection of the said taxes, the select and common councils of the said city, by their joint vote, shall, as soon as may be convenient for the present year, and annually hereafter on the same day that the mayor of the city shall be elected, appoint one reputable freeholder of the city to be the city assessor and one reputable citizen to be the collector of the city taxes

SECTION III. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said assessor and collector shall, each, take an oath or affirmation, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, diligently, faithfully, and truly to perform the several duties required of them by the laws and ordinances of the said city, which oaths or affirmations shall be administered by the mayor or an alderman of the city, signed by the party, and filed in the mayors office,

SECTION IV. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That immediately after the appointment of the said city assessor the mayor shall issue his precept to him, requiring him to take up the last county assessment for the said city, and from and according to it, to make out a just and perfect return, in alphabetical order, of the names of all taxable persons within the said city, and of the property made taxable by the ordinances of the city, within thirty days from the date of such precept, together with the valuation of the same as made in the said county assessment, and the said city assessor shall also, in his said return, note, and add to the same, all alterations in the said city occasioned by transfer or division of real property, and also shall leave out of the same all persons who have removed from the city since the said county assessment was made, and shall add and insert all single freemen who have arrived at the age of twenty one years since the last county assessment, and all others who have since that time come to inhabit within the city, together with the taxable property such persons may possess—which said persons and property so added to his return, the city assessor shall assess and rate according to the provisions of the eighth section of an act of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entitled "an act to raise and collect county rates and levies" passed the 11th day of April 1799. And as soon as the said assessment or return is completed, the said city assessor shall cause written or printed notices to be given to each taxable inhabitant of the city, of the amount of the sum of which he or she stands rated for, together with the amount of his or her tax, and of the time and place of holding an appeal, which notice shall be given at least three days before the day of appeal, and which board of appeal shall be composed of the said assesor and of one member of the select and one member of the common council, to be appointed by a joint resolution of the said councils, and who shall attend and hear all persons who apply for redress, and grant such releif as to them shall appear just and reasonable:

SECTION V. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That immediately after the said appeal the Mayor of the city is hereby authorised and required to cause the said assessment return to be filed in his office, and a list of the taxes to be made out and delivered to the city collector, who shall give a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, in a penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. And it shall be the duty of the said collector, after he has received the said tax list, forthwith to demand from the persons in such list named, or at their dwelling houses, or in case of their absence from their agents or representatives, the sum wherewith such person stands charged, and in case the same shall not be paid within two months after the said list shall have been delivered and demand made as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the said collector to levy the said tax by distress and sale of the goods and chattles of said delinquent, giving ten days public notice of such sale by written or printed advertisements, and in case goods or chattles cannot be found sufficient to satisfy the same, with costs of suit, the said collector shall be authorised to take the body of such delinquent and convey him to the jail of the proper county, there to remain untill the taxes, with costs, be paid or secured to be paid, or he be otherwise discharged by due course of law. And the goods and chattels of all tenants occupying any premises assessed or taxed as aforesaid, shall be as liable to be distrained for taxes arising out of such premises, as though the said tenants were the real owners thereof. Provided nevertheless that such tenant shall have the benefit of defalcating such tax with his or her landlord, at the payment of his or her rents, unless specially agreed upon otherwise by contract or lease. Provided always that, where the said collector shall have reasonable ground to believe that any single freeman or other person, charged or taxed in his said list is about to leave or remove from the said city without paying his or her tax, then and in such case he shall have power and authority immediately to levy and collect the same.

SECTION VI. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid That the collector of the taxes, shall, under the penalty of fifty dollars for each and every neglect, pay or cause to be paid to the city treasurer on the last day of every week, the whole amount of taxes collected by him during the week exclusive of the commission or compensation allowed to him for collecting the same. And if any of the taxes mentioned in the said tax list, shall not be collected and paid to the treasurer within nine months after the said tax list shall have been delivered to the collector, said collector and his securities shall be answerable for the sums in his said tax list mentioned, unless the said collector shall make it appear to the satisfaction of the mayor and treasurer of the city, that the real estate taxed as aforesaid, has been for all the time aforessid unoccupied, and the owner thereof out of the county of Allegheny, or the persons charged with personal taxes were not to be found, or were by poverty disabled to pay the same.

SECTION VII. Be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the assessor shall receive the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day, for his time actually employed in the service herein prescribed, and the collector of the taxes shall be allowed a commission of three per cent on the monies collected and paid over by him.

SECTION VIII. And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforesaid, That, for the more effectually providing against neglects and defaults therein, the treasurer is authorised and required to examine from time to time the tax list aforesaid which may be placed in the hands of the collector and if he shall be found delinquent in discharging his duties, the treasurer shall forthwith give notice in writing to the mayor or in his absence to the recorder of the city, in order that the necessary and proper measnres may be adopted therein.

DOCTOR CHISHOLM'S
Anti-Bilious Pills,

Of a quality superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a GENERAL MEDICINE, in this Country.

NOW prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India Islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most compleate history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary Medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuent of Bile, is without example, never producing debility or injuring the body in the smallest degree, of the most delicate and weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, of a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excruciating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flaxseed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and DISEASES OF THE LIVER, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills also every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing & great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by
